Concerns over explicit photos CROSS-DRESS ONLYFANS 'CANNIBAL' QUITS COUNCIL

By HUGH JOHNSON

A CROSS-DRESSING councillor has quit after it was revealed he ran an OnlyFans account and had written about "cannibal fantasies" online.

'Jessica Ann' Roberts was only appointed last week, but the council was later made aware that he had published explicit photographs on the adult website, and there were also concerns about cannibal sex fantasies he shared online.

Trump catches fewer migrants than Biden did

THE number of migrants caught illegally crossing the US southern border has dropped by 82 per cent since Donald Trump's immigration crackdown.

In February, 8,347 people were arrested trying to illegally cross the border, according to US border patrol statistics, putting the new administration on track for the lowest year of migrant crossings in decades.

The numbers represent a staggering decline in arrests at the Mexico border since December, the final full month of the Biden administration, when the border patrol apprehended 47,330 migrants.

That was the lowest daily average for any month during Mr Biden's presidency, but it was still five times as many as February – the first full month since Trump returned to the White House.

Pharmacies told to work to rule

ABOUT 6,000 community pharmacies in England are, for the first time, being advised to start "working to rule", in two weeks, unless agreement can be reached with the government on a new NHS contract.

The National Pharmacy Association (NPA) is urging its members to limit opening hours to 40 a week, as set out in the current contract, because they have yet to receive any confirmation of funding for this or next financial year.

They could also cut services such as delivering medicines to people's homes.

Tributes as last surviving Battle of Britain pilot dies, aged 105

THE END OF THE FEW

THE Few are no more... The last surviving pilot who fought in the Battle of Britain, Group Captain John 'Paddy' Hemingway, has died aged 105.

Born in Dublin in 1919, Mr Hemingway enlisted in the RAF in 1938 and soon became one of the young pilots who fought in the Battle of France.

Two years later, he was among the men known as "The Few", coined by Winston Churchill to describe Britain's Battle of Britain pilots.

Prime Minister Sir Keir Starmer said he was saddened to hear of Mr Hemingway's death, adding: "Eighty years ago, the courage and determination of Paddy and all our brave RAF pilots helped bring an end to the Second World War.

"They fearlessly flew over enemy territory to protect the UK and its Allies, risking their lives.

"He never considered himself a hero and often referred to himself as the 'Lucky Irishman', a man simply doing his job, like so many others of his generation.

"Despite his sacrifice, he would tell stories of the joyous memories he made and moments he shared with his peers, many of whom never returned home.

"Their sense of duty and service secured our freedom, and we shall never forget them."

Defence Secretary John Healey said: "Paddy came from a generation who understood the importance of freedom and sacrificed so much to achieve it. "The last known Battle of Britain pilot, he embodied the deep courage of that incredible generation."

WE WILL REMEMBER THEM: Group Captain John 'Paddy' Hemingway

King's ill Pope trip is still on

KING Charles III and Queen Camilla are going ahead with the state visit to Italy and the Vatican, including plans for a meeting with Pope Francis.

The Pope has been ill, but Buckingham Palace says the trip will continue as planned, from 7-10 April, with engagements in Rome and Ravenna.

The King had privately sent a letter to the Pope, when he was taken ill, but a photo released by the Vatican at the weekend appeared to show the 88-year-old was slowly recovering.

The visit will see a symbolic building of links between the Roman Catholic Church and the Church of England, of which King Charles is the Supreme Governor.

As well as meeting the Pope, the King will attend an ecumenical service in the Sistine Chapel and visit the Papal Basilica of Saint Paul's Outside the Walls.

There will also be a personal dimension to the state visit, as the trip to Rome coincides with the King and Queen's 20th wedding anniversary.

Israel reopens 'gates to hell'

ISRAEL has restarted its war against Hamas, launching air strikes that killed at least 330 people and injured dozens more.

The IDF confirmed on Tuesday morning it had "resumed fighting" with Hamas after talks on further hostage releases stalled, bringing an end to a ceasefire that lasted two months.

The "extensive strikes" targeted mid-ranking military commanders, leadership officials and terrorist infrastructure belonging to Hamas.

Israel Katz, the Israeli defence minister, said "the gates of hell" would remain open in Gaza until all hostages were set free.

The Hamas-run health ministry said at least 330 people had died, including the group's minister for information.

PLANS: Liz Kendall

Anger at attack on disabled

LABOUR REVOLT OVER WELFARE CUTS

KEIR Starmer is facing a major revolt from backbench MPs – and even his own Cabinet colleagues – over planned benefits cuts.

Labour MPs are worried that the cuts to benefits could be seen as an attack on the disabled.

Work and Pensions Secretary Liz Kendall unveiled her plans to the Commons in a speech on Tuesday.

But there is a growing backlash against the plans within the party, with Left-wing MPs accusing Sir Keir of pushing a cuts agenda that has left their disabled constituents "terrified" about what is to come next.

By JENNIFER SMALLBONE
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Some are lobbying for other constituents to flood MPs with their concerns in an apparent attempt to pressure politicians to oppose the cuts.

There are claims that Sir Keir could face the largest rebellion of his premiership over the measures when they face a vote in the Commons.

However, a Number 10 source said that the welfare cuts package, which is expected to raise £6 billion, was in effect signed off last week and was announced after Cabinet approval on Tuesday.

Pat McFadden, the Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster and a key figure behind the scenes, insisted the plans were "in line with the values of the Labour Party".

Reports had suggested unease around the Cabinet table, with ministers including Deputy Prime Minister Angela Rayner and Energy Secretary Ed Miliband said to have voiced concerns in private.

Critical

But Mr McFadden said: "I believe the Cabinet is united behind taking on the issue of the growing benefits bill."

He told Times Radio the current system "leaves too many people in a permanent state of dependence on benefits without the opportunity of work".

Labour MPs are still critical of the plans.

Andy McDonald, MP for Middlesbrough and Thornaby East, said: "I have been inundated with emails from constituents making it clear just how terrified they are at the prospect of their social security being frozen or cut."

Rachael Maskell, the Labour MP for York Central, said: "I have heard from so many constituents about their concerns with both physical and mental poor health."

Sir Keir's huge Commons majority means that the changes are expected to clear any votes that are needed to bring the policy into force, but the Prime Minister does risk a politically damaging rebellion.

NET ZERO TARGET 'BOLLOCKS' – OFFICIAL

KEMI Badenoch has said it is "impossible" for the UK to meet its net zero target by 2050 – a goal set by a previous Conservative government.

The UK is legally committed to reaching net zero by 2050 under a law passed by Theresa May in 2019. It means the UK must cut carbon emissions until it produces, in line with the 2015 Paris Climate Agreement.

Badenoch said net zero cannot be achieved by 2050 "without a serious drop in our living standards or by bankrupting us".

The Conservative leader did not set out a replacement for the target, but her words mark a sharp break from years of political consensus.

A source close to Badenoch said the Conservative leader still backs net zero, but not by 2050.

In a speech on Tuesday, Badenoch called lower energy costs and environmental protection "noble aims" but said current policies were "largely failing" to improve nature, while raising energy prices.

She said: "We're falling between two stools – too high costs and too little progress."

Rhian hits back at fans who blasted her surgery plans

HANDS OFF MY BOOBS!

news@sundaysport.co.uk

GLAMOUR girl Rhian Sugden has hit back at trolls who slammed the babe's plans to reduce her big boobs..

The 35-year-old, who has admitted her huge F-cup busters make it "unbearable" to walk, took to Instagram to reveal surgery plans.

But this left many fans devastated, saying Rhian "shouldn't try to fix what isn't broken".

Hitting back at the negative comments, the beauty said: "It's actually quite shameful that I'm writing a caption to justify what I'm doing with my body."

Rhian then explained her reasons for wanting the surgery, adding: "12 months ago, before I got pregnant, my boobs were large but still a manageable DD/E cup."

"After having a baby my size has increased to an F and I'm spilling out of my bras. I'm having an uplift and a reduction."

"Boob experts (men) are messaging me telling me to just lose weight and they'll shrink. Look at me! I'm the size I was yet despite your professional advice my melons haven't shrunk. Who'd have thought?"

She went on: "My back hurts. I long to wear backless dresses. Buy sexy lingerie, wear no bra when I go out, run, swim without them falling out of my swimsuit. They don't make me happy this big."

"Messaging me and calling me 'deluded' for wanting a reduction to go back to the size I was 12 months ago, is absurd."

"What is wrong with humans these days?! It's my body, my happiness and it's my choice."

"I'm sharing my journey as it's a very big and scary move for me but this is something I need to do."

Bin wagons blocked by strike staff

PICKETING binmen walked in circles to block refuse lorries leaving a Birmingham depot as strikes in the city continue.

Some 400 council bin workers began an indefinite strike over pay and jobs last Tuesday. One week on, England's second city is disappearing under a sea of rubbish.

Vermis are having a field day, with giant rats openly scampering among the refuse.

Around 9am on Monday, striking staff left the picket line to walk slowly in circles outside the depot.

A snaking queue of more than a dozen lorries took 90 minutes to travel 500ft as the exit was blocked.

West Midlands Police officers shouted at people on Redfern Road to move as the trucks tried to pass, but no arrests were made.

The first lorry took 15 minutes to pass through as a queue had formed behind it.

IKEA torched in 'spy' attack

RUSSIAN spies set fire to a huge IKEA store as "the colours are same as the Ukraine flag", Lithuanian prosecutors claim.

The Kremlin's military intelligence has been accused of orchestrating an arson attack on the shop in the Lithuanian capital of Vilnius in May last year. It will be tried as an act of terrorism.

The fire broke out in the store three days before a shopping centre in neighbouring Poland also went up in flames.

One asked "Why is this girl always naked?" while another added, "What's happening?"

Someone also wondered if she'd even had a wardrobe, saying: "Doesn't poor Bianca own any clothes?"

Others loved the look, calling her a "hottie", "gorgeous", and "the most Googled woman in the world". For us, though, it is a good excuse to dig out more snaps of topless babes on rollerskates...

'Drunk' fan booted out of Carr gig

FUNNYMAN Jimmy Carr has become the latest big-name comic to throw out a rowdy punter at a gig.

The 52-year-old (above) was performing at Birmingham's Symphony Hall on Sunday as part of his latest stand-up tour. And like Peter Kay, who ejected a heckler last month during a gig at Manchester's AO Arena, Jimmy was pissed off with a punter for talking during the opening 30 minutes of his routine – and becoming a “nuisance” to those around him.

A witness said: “Four people got up to leave and one of them had to be held back from hitting the heckler.”

Cocaine

“Then Jimmy Carr intervened – he told the four fans to sit down and said to the heckler, ‘You’re blind drunk, you’re probably on cocaine, so I’ll give you three choices.’

“You can either get up and leave, go away and come back and see me again, or you can sit there, refuse to go and I’ll get security.”

The rowdy audience member refused to budge which then sparked Jimmy to call security who escorted the heckler out of the theatre.

'Kate' jail is worst in UK for druggies

HMP Styal has the highest positive drug test results of all UK women's jails, which bosses appeared “ill-equipped to tackle”, a prisons watchdog says.

The rate of self-harm was the second highest at Styal, in Cheshire, of all 12 women's prisons, with more than 5,200 reported incidents in the past year, a report by HM Inspectorate of Prisons found.

A quarter of all incidents of self-harm involved three women, with one harming herself more than 400 times during the last year – sometimes multiple times each day – HMIP said.

This individual was eventually transferred to a mental health hospital.

It comes after the Princess of Wales visited the prison last month to meet ex-offenders and those still serving who have received support from a mum and baby unit.

HMP/YOI Styal receives women from courts all over the north west of England and also Wales – either on remand or sentenced.

There are facilities for mothers with babies up to 18 months old.

Cannibal fetish crossdresser quits council role over his OnlyFans page

I'VE GOT ITTY BITTY TITTIES AND A BIG GIRL COCK

A NEWLY appointed tranny city councillor has quit after it was revealed he ran an OnlyFans account and wrote about “cannibal fantasies” online.

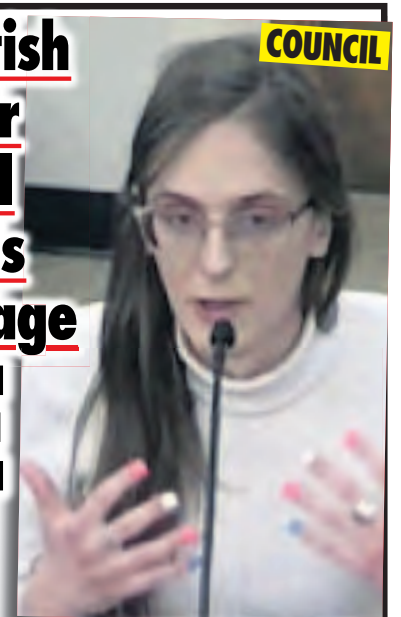

“Jessica Ann” Roberts was appointed to Lynnwood City Council in Washington State, but the council was later made aware that he'd published explicit photos on the adult OnlyFans subscription site.

The council called a meeting to “discuss the qualifications” of the councillor and “decide whether to rescind” the appointment.

But just hours before it was due to start, Roberts quit the role because he felt the “continued scrutiny” of her personal life would distract from the real work of the council.

He described himself in the since-deleted account as a “bisexual transwoman with itty bitty titties and a big girl cock”.

Derica Escamill, of Lynnwood city council, said the organisation had been previously

By HUGH JOHNSON
news@sundaysport.co.uk

“unaware” of the OnlyFans account.

Another Lynnwood Council member, Pat Decker, added: “I had no idea of the views Jessica held and do not feel those views and activities are in keeping with the gravity and seriousness of serving the people of Lynnwood on the City Council.”

Roberts later said in a statement: “My personal life and identity does not in any way affect my ability to do the job.”

“However, I have decided to withdraw my appointment – not because I’m unwilling to serve the people of my community, but because the continued scrutiny of my personal life is a potential distraction from the council’s progress.”

Roberts, who is also described as a customer service representative on his LinkedIn page, previously said they had created the account to help boost self-confidence and to make “a little cash on the side”.

Local media also reported that member Roberts’ now deleted alleged Reddit profile, Other_Ardvark_6105, dabbled in some dark fantasies – including eating women.

Roberts is also said to have graphically described fantasies of killing and eating her “prey’s” family members while they watch, and a role-playing scenario in which a disciplined student is eaten alive.

Map of UK biggest sex toys sales

PEOPLE living in the home of the SAS buy the biggest dildos in Britain.

Thrusting its way to the No.1 spot on Lovehoney's 2025 UK sex map, the average dildo purchased by residents here is 7.13 inches long.

In comparison, that's roughly the length of a standard pencil, manual toothbrush or mid-sized banana.

But Hereford (above) – the home of the legendary regiment since 1960 – isn't the only dark horse when it comes to adult device preferences.

Coming just behind, Jersey took second place, with the average sex toy purchased here measuring up at 7.11 inches in length.

Inverness locals buy dildos measuring 7.10 inches, placing the Scottish town third, while Twickenham averages 7.09 inches.

Finishing out the top five most size-obsessed is Hemel Hempstead, where shoppers hop on more than just its magic roundabout with an average dildo size of 7.07 inches.

Doncaster, Wigan, Peterborough, Halifax, Norwich and Darlington also enjoy members above seven inches, with Salisbury (ranked 12th) being the first to prefer toys in the six inch range, at 6.99ins.

The average UK penis size is 5.63 ins – ranking us 60th in the world.

Alton Towers deny sewage shut new ride

ALTON Towers' latest attraction, Toxicator, was forced to close on its opening day after a burst pipe caused a leak of brown liquid.

Visitors at the Staffordshire theme park expressed frustration at the ride's closure, with one calling it a "nightmare day" that left his son "so disappointed".

Customers claimed a "brown liquid" was leaking near the entrance of the ride on Saturday.

Alton Towers denied reports it was sewage – insisting it was a nearby burst pipe.

A spokesperson for the theme park said the incident was "unrelated to the new ride" and confirmed that operations were suspended for about two hours.

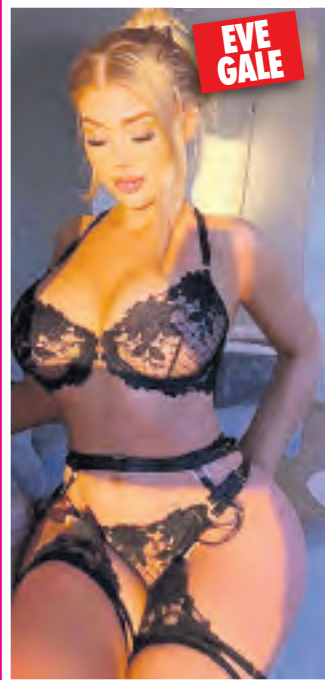

"Due to an unexpected burst pipe near the ride, Toxicator briefly paused operation while our teams swiftly dealt with the issue.

"The ride and its surrounding area are now fully reopen and welcoming guests."

STUDENTS at one of Britain's top universities have been told: "Don't shit in the shower!"

A memo was sent to undergrads at St Mary's College – part of the historic University of Durham – warning them that the shared showers were not for toilet duties. The vile antics appear to have been occurring at the college's Williamson building – a 100-room accommodation block at the college, which was founded back in 1895.

Functions

A stern memo from college authorities states: "I need to remind and reinforce to our resident community showers and toilets have separate functions. I became aware yesterday that we have had several reports/complaints of students in Williamson using showers in shared bathrooms as a toilet.

evidence of this for other students to find and the housekeeping team to clean up... this type of behaviour is completely unacceptable."

The memo continues that anyone who accidentally shits themselves in the shower can report it to college authorities anonymously "to avoid embarrassment".

Former Durham student Samantha Smith, now a political commentator, raged: "Durham is one of the best unis in the country... and people are going round pooing in the showers."

"Is my generation OK? Like, how did we get to this point?"

St Mary's was founded as a women's only college – the Women's Hostel – adopting its present name in May 1920. The college is co-educational, having only begun to admit men in 2005, the last of Durham's original single-sex colleges to do so.

Former students include former Blue Peter head honcho Biddy Baxter and GB News reporter Tom Harwood.

There is no suggestion that either Biddy Baxter or Tom Harwood ever shat in the showers.

Rat-munch tramp fuels virus threat

SICKENING footage has emerged of a crazy tramp eating a rat.

The man was seen casually eating pieces of the dead rodent in the Bronx, New York, on a street, according to social media video.

The Instagram clip shows the homeless fella dissecting the rodent on a doorstep.

He's seen pulling a piece from the rat's remains and popping the morsel into his mouth – just like a chicken nugget.

Crazy

"I gotta get out the Bronx... this is crazy," a woman's voice can be heard saying in the background of the video, which has had over 55,000 views.

A few seconds later, the man lifts the rat to his lips and uses his teeth to tear at it – like a pork chop.

"No, no no – what the f**k? He is wilding!" a male's voice can also be overheard in the video.

"Thanks Biden," one Instagrammer quipped in the comment section.

"USA, the envy of the world," another said.

And another warned: "Here comes another new virus."

Girls in care bunk up with tranny boys

GIRLS in care should be made to share a bedroom with boys who think they are girls, guidance from Scotland's watchdog says.

The advice, issued by the Care Inspectorate, says "if a transgender young person wants to share a room with other young people who share their gender identity, they should be able to do so as long as the rights of, and risks to, all those involved are considered and respected".

Its guidance, which was published in the wake of last year's Cass Review, says that transgender children "should not be made to use the toilet or bedroom of their sex assigned at birth".

It adds: "The provision of gendered facilities, such as toilets, is social convention. There is no law in Scotland about this."

Women's rights activists have accused the watchdog of being "grossly negligent" amid a fierce debate on the provision of single-sex spaces in Scotland – namely, that men who self-identify as women can use women's changing rooms and toilets.

PORN star Marina Gold was banned from a livestreaming site after she accidentally filmed herself having a wee!

Gold, 22, from Lima in Peru, was filming a live broadcast on Kick from the Jockey Plaza shopping centre when the incident occurred.

She'd been livestreaming on the street when she realised she needed to use the lavvy and rushed into a public shithouse.

Once inside, she placed her phone on the floor beside the toilet bowl, "unaware" it was still recording.

As she pulled down her panties, her MINGE was then exposed to her 30,000 Kick followers.

"I went to the bathroom and put the camera at an angle that I thought couldn't be seen, but it was, and on Kick you can't show any of that," she later explained.

The unintended exposure led to her being banned from the site.

Initially, she was suspended for six days, but after then appealing to the platform, the ban was reduced to 15 hours.

"I wrote to them and told them I was sorry, that it was unintentional," Gold added.

"They banned me for, like, 15 hours, but now everything is fine."

The Peruvian-born star, who is now based in the US, had returned to her home country to film a series of livestreams.

She has a huge following on social media, with 828,000 Instagram followers, and is actively working to grow her audience on Kick.

The famous Es Vedra viewpoint, where visitors gather to watch the sun set behind mountains each evening, is now off-limits after frustrated landowners declared they'd had enough of being overrun by crowds.

And chaos erupted in Tenerife last week, where activists torched and smashed a fleet of hire cars in an act of protest.

WHITBY TURNING INTO 'LAS VEGAS'

FURIOUS locals are battling to stop their seaside town from being turned into the "Las Vegas of the East Coast" – over controversial plans to turn its last high street bank into a 24-hour casino.

Picturesque Whitby (below) is famed for its cobbled streets, quaint shops and coastal charm.

The Halifax branch in the town's historic centre is set to close in mid-May, with developers Luxury Leisure revealing plans to replace it with an "adult gaming centre" and plough £500,000 into the proposed project.

There's been more than 500 objections lodged and the town's MP has handed a petition to Parliament, urging North Yorkshire Council to throw out the scheme.

Residents and business owners fear the plan would ruin Whitby's character and attract the "wrong crowd".

And one local politician even warned: "If this is approved, Whitby will become the Las Vegas of the East Coast."

Canada eyes porno ban in US trade war

CANADIANS could get the upper hand in the trade war with the US – by blocking Yanks' supply of porn!

The idea to block American access to Canadian-owned grot site Pornhub is the brainchild of funnyman Matthew Puzhitsky.

He posted a now-viral Insta video suggesting the X-rated offensive — calling it Canada’s “nuclear weapon”.

Pornhub is the most visited site in the US with over 3 million views a month.

"If Canada could ban Pornhub in the States, we win the trade war. That's it. There is no trade war," the Toronto comedian said.

A petition has since been launched urging Canadian authorities to block Pornhub as a “peaceful yet powerful” response to the trade dispute launched when US President Donald Trump (above) imposed tariffs on goods from America’s northern neighbour.

THESE BABES WILL RAISE YOUR TEMPERATURE!

By SUZIE SHELTON news@sundaysport.co.uk

THERE seems to be several days of the year when we are encouraged to pay tribute to medical professionals.

And today – March 19 – is National Certified Nurses Day.

The event started in the US “celebrating nurses who have chosen to continue and further their knowledge and education in the medical field through certification”.

Certified Nurses Day is an annual day of recognition for and by healthcare leaders dedicated to nursing professionalism, excellence, recognition and service.

It helps remind us that nursing is a serious career – a million miles away from the “sexy nurses” stereotype in the Carry On films.

So here are some nurses with their boobs out...

...WITH JESSICA MOON, 35E, FROM BASILDON, ESSEX

MY favourite sexual fantasy is getting some steamy lesbo action!

Girl-on-girl is my go-to porn to watch. I've never actually been in a situation to get it on with another woman, but it's definitely on my sex bucket list.

I'm really turned on by curvy women – big peachy bum, huge boobs, thick thighs and a flat stomach.

I like dark hair and girls who look a bit edgy with tattoos.

I fantasise about kissing a hot girl's soft lips, and getting butterflies when she moves her hands over my breasts.

I imagine it would feel amazing for our naked boobs to rub against each other, our nipples getting harder.

I reckon another woman has to be good at going down – after all, they know what feels good.

A 69er would be heavenly!

Both of us getting wetter and wetter as we lick and suck each other's clits.

Right, life is too short... I'm going to get myself on Tinder and make this happen!

Zoo denies power cut ape escape

A TOWN plunged into chaos over rumours a gorilla had escaped from a local zoo – and was running amok.

The Virginia Zoological Park was forced to put out a statement to calm locals' fears, reminding residents that no gorillas were actually kept there.

The Virginia Zoological Park lost power and not long after rumours started circulating online their electricity shortage left a gorilla's enclosure unlocked.

People even reported seeing a gorilla on the loose, lending credence to the rumours.

Mascot

"We heard talk of an escaped gorilla, but we think it may have just been [the zoo's mascot] ZooSquatch spotted on his daily run," the zoo posted on Facebook.

"But don't worry, he has made it back to the zoo and our keepers want you to know that all of our animals are safe and accounted for – except for gorillas... because we don't have those."

Officials said a real escape would have been followed by them issuing an immediate warning.

They added: "Should there ever be an animal escape from our facility, a statement will be issued – for your safety."

'Friendly' alligator in motel

MOTEL cleaning staff were stunned to find a guest had left a three-foot live ALLIGATOR in their room after checking out.

The scaly three-foot-long reptile, Wally, was found in the Pine River Motel in Cheboygan, Michigan, soon after a collector of exotic animals had paid his bill and left.

"We just went in to clean the room and, when my nephew looked under the bed, Wally was there," motel manager, identified only as Gary said.

Friendly

"He was a real friendly gator, so I didn't feel real scared. He let the police officers hold him and all that, I mean, it was a real friendly alligator."

The owner – who takes exotic animals around the schools – assumed Wally had escaped into the wild, the motel manager said.

Wally was reunited with his owner.

Maitland Ward reveals why she prefers grumble to Hollywood...

I GET MORE RESPECT DOING PORN!

By SUZIE SHELTON news@sundaysport.co.uk

MAITLAND Ward says she's treated with "more respect" in the porn industry.

The 48-year-old grumble queen, who used to star in mainstream Yank sitcom Boy Meets World, said: "I really think people treat me with more respect – especially in Hollywood right now."

"I'm pitching my memoir into a TV format and talking with people. They're so respectful, and they're so positive about my story."

"Especially younger people. They're just much more receptive to the story."

Maitland, who was at the 2025 AVN Expo recently, went on to say that she now has the freedom to navigate her career.

She said: "I'm able to create my own brand, my own content, the way I want to create it."

The adult film star – who does full, oral, anal and even DOUBLE PENETRATION on film – recounted her entry into the adult industry, noting she experienced no negative reactions when she started in the sex movie business.

"I really got a lot of positivity overall, which shocked everyone that I knew," she said.

"Everybody thought people were just going to rip me apart, and I was going to be judged and raked across the coals, but I got so much positivity and I think it's because I was so positive about it, and I was so happy about it."

When Maitland's mainstream acting career dried up, she eventually made the full leap into adult films in 2019.

The beauty, from Bristol, said she gets really turned on fantasising about having sex with a hunky soldier or policeman.

Skye, who boasts a perky 32D top rack, said: "I dream about being pulled over by a copper on the motorway and he's giving me a right ticking-off."

"Then I suggest there must be some way to avoid a ticket, and give him a cheeky wink."

"Next thing I know he has his handcuffs out!"

"And maybe he'd give me a little spank on the bottom with his solid truncheon!"

"Shagging a soldier is another fantasy of mine – just the thought of all those muscles bursting out of his neat uniform."

"You could say I have a bit of a uniform fetish, and I'm happy to do my bit and put on my saucy college girl, naughty nurse or French maid outfit and join in the fun!"

JUSTIN DUNN RANTS!

WHAT'S ANNOYING HIM THIS WEEK?

Watch out disabled people – they are coming for YOU...

JUST when you thought this wretched Government couldn't get any worse, they pull yet another rotten dead rabbit out of the hat.

Their latest wheeze, as revealed in one of the posh newspapers on Saturday, is to freeze the personal independent payments of disabled people.

You just wonder if perhaps there aren't any other areas that Labour could look to stop wasting our money on first.

Like – just for instance – the massively expensive and pointless Net Zero plan championed by "Dick" Ed Miliband and hardly anyone else.

Or a f**king £100million tunnel so that bats can flutter undisturbed by the equally pointless HS2 railway line that is now definitely not going to be what it said on the tin.

Or have a genuine, real term look at NHS budgets and the massive amounts of waste within them instead of re-arranging deckchairs on the Titanic.

But no. They're after those in wheelchairs instead.

To do this, they want to first put a freeze on the payments for a year while they work out who they want to completely cross off the list for good.

Hideous

It has all the hallmarks of having been dreamt up by some policy wonk, in a job for life on a massive salary with a gold-plated pension, lurking somewhere in that hideous black hole of taxpayers' money we laughingly call The Treasury.

Disabled people like my missus, who woke up stone deaf 36 hours after taking the vaccine that the previous Government – supported by those leading this new one – pretty much forced on us all, are in their sights.

In about 20 or 30 years' time someone will finally break cover to admit that the vaccines were actually a bit hit and miss, and that they certainly can be harmful.

But like wrongly accused Post Office sub-postmasters, and tainted blood transfusion victims, and the families of blokes forced to watch nuclear bombs being tested while protected by sensible shorts and sunglasses, you can be sure nothing will ever be settled while even so much as one of the victims remains alive.

And I can't be the only one now wondering if the Lucy Letby "baby killer" case is going to blow up into yet another huge scandal too.

Labour's plan will see all PIP claimants' needs "assessed" – and we all know what that means.

A slightly awkward man from the council wearing mismatched socks sitting in your living room and deciding whether or not you're an actual spastic or just pretending to have no legs.

He will then go away and award each individual "points" – a bit like a bouncer decides whether or not to let you into a nightclub.

Big tits and a short skirt? You're in. Piano-tie and Dunlop Green Flash trainers? Off to the alleyway to get your head kicked in.

And who will sign off on this exciting new points system?

Politicians, of course.

Those people who famously know f**k all about anything.

Just look at Rachel from Accounts, Jonathan I'm-Not-Really-A-Solicitor, and Bridget Never-Met-A-Union-I-Didn't-Cave-In-To.

It made me wonder if politicians should only be allowed to stand in elections if they pass a points system themselves.

Kinky

Like, say, whether they have kinky sexual preferences they really don't want the world to know about.

Or their propensity for fraud, like that "striking" (read – weird-looking) Louise woman who was briefly Transport Secretary.

Or their inability not to be a punchy twat, like that punchy twat convicted of repeatedly punching a constituent while the victim was on the floor.

But it'll never happen, of course, because weeding out anyone with a skeleton rattling around in the cupboard would leave the entire House of Commons bare.

And if you're thinking the Lords could step in instead, well, any club that has men in wigs and frocks and tights has even more question marks over it than the grubby, elected lot next door.

So hang on to your hats, disabled people. They're coming for you.

France asks US to hand back Liberty

FRANCE should take back the Statue of Liberty as the US no longer represents the values that led France to offer it to the Yanks, a French MEP says.

"Give us back the Statue of Liberty", centre-Left politician Raphael Glucksmann said at a convention of his Place Publique centre-left movement.

Mr Glucksmann has become a key figure in the powerful Leftist alliance and a staunch defender of Ukraine.

His comments come as Donald Trump's presidency has spread widespread fears about the future of European security and democracy in America.

"We're going to say to the Americans who have chosen to side with the tyrants, to the Americans who fired researchers for demanding scientific freedom, 'Give us back the Statue of Liberty'," Mr Glucksmann told cheering supporters.

"We gave it to you as a gift, but apparently you despise it."

"So it will be just fine here at home."

The Statue of Liberty was unveiled in New York City's harbour on October 28, 1886, for the centennial of the American Declaration of Independence – as a gift from the French people to America.

Teenage pee soup compo

A RESTAURANT had to compensate 4,000 diners after teenage employees filmed themselves peeing in the soup.

Two 17-year-old males at the Shanghai branch of Haidilao – one of China's biggest hot pot chains – carried out the unsanitary act in a private dining room of the restaurant.

Haidilao admitted their employees working that night failed to stop the teens, and claimed they weren't alerted to the nasty situation until four days later.

It then took the firm, which owns more than 1,000 restaurants worldwide, until March 6 to confirm the actual location where the gross scene occurred.

However, it seems no one actually consumed the urine-laden meal.

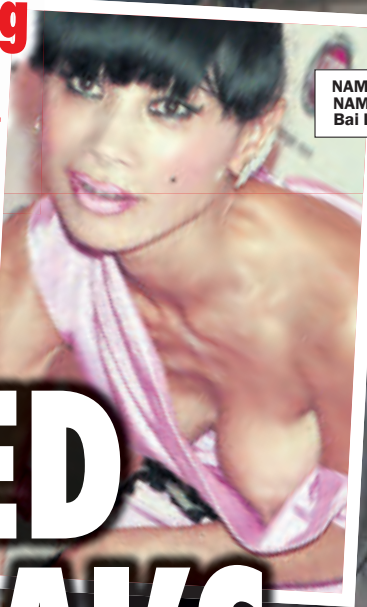

Haidilao has since assured the public it replaced all its equipment and dining utensils, and disinfected other crockery and utensils.

A spokesman for the company said: "We are willing to do our utmost to take responsibility."

STARS BRACED FOR BAI'S BONKING BLOCKBUSTER!

news@sundaysport.co.uk

HOLLYWOOD big shots are quaking in their boots after a racy actress revealed she's written a tell-all sex book about her time in Tinseltown.

While Bai Ling has made a name for herself as an actress and musician since moving from China to the US in 1991, she's also had a long and storied love life with many big stars.

And now she's about to reveal the names and juicy details to some of her more notable romances with high-profile celebs in her upcoming tell-all memoir that will span the course of four decades.

The Crow and Southland Tales star has already claimed Wrestler actor Mickey Rourke will be included in the forthcoming book – My Outrageous Romances In Hollywood – as well as "more people you will be shocked about".

"They will be nervous... I will be nervous... it will be shocking... it is a story I need to tell," the 58-year-old said.

Over the years Ling has also been linked to the likes of comedian Bill Maher, Backstreet Boys singer Nick Carter, four-time Grammy winner Lionel Richie, and musician Chris Isaak, among many others.

Bai added: "I just feel at this stage of my life, it's time to tell these fascinating stories about those men everybody knows."

"Right now I have to delete some. I cannot include everybody. I don't remember how many lovers I have had – there are many."

THE ULTIMATE GIRLFRIEND EXPERIENCE!

Swap Messages, Pictures & Videos with Gorgeous Girls!

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page

Dear Sam,

THE other week I found a film clip on the internet which I'm pretty sure is of my girlfriend and two blokes – having sex.

Imagine my shock when I saw her sucking on a huge cock while she was being boned from behind.

Then I watched in amazement as she sucked both their cocks at the same time.

She then lay on the bed while they wanked all over her tits before screaming her head off as she had one cock up her arse and one in her fanny.

This shocked me more than anything else because she's always been so reluctant to experiment sexually like that with me.

Even though I realise she may have made this film before we ever met, I can't get it out of my head and refuse to delete it off my home computer, as I still like to watch it and have a tug when I'm alone.

Is this normal behaviour?

DC, Newcastle

Sam says...

WHY not ask her to make your own video together.

Dear Sam,

I'M a married businesswoman who was in charge of a big sales firm, bossing around dozens of men.

But this all changed last month when the firm was taken over and a new chief exec arrived. He's a pushy type but really fit who is always effing and blinding at the staff.

At first I put up with him, but one day I blew my top when he criticised me. When I calmed down he smiled and said there was only room for one boss and I'd have to learn my place.

I found myself getting turned on by his words and then he grabbed me, bent me over his desk, pulled up my skirt and gave me a good spanking!

I was so shocked I did not try to resist and he then teased my fanny with his expert fingers until I was virtually begging for him to f**k me over his desk.

Now when I'm randy, I am deliberately rude to him and he spansks me. Is this a normal working relationship?

DS, Sussex

Sam says...

NO – but it sounds like you've got everything in hand. l.

Office cleaners enjoyed playing dirty with me

Dear Sam,

I'M a night security guard at an office block and my routine is usually pretty boring.

But one night last week I was doing my rounds when I heard sexy giggling coming from one of the offices.

I carefully peeped in and was amazed to see two of the fit young cleaning girls, both about 19 or 20, naked and touching each other up!

Instantly my Johnson stiffened as I stood and watched the babes running their hands over each other's bodies.

Then they started kissing each other deeply and toying with their stiff nips.

The blonde one then squatted down and tongued the redhead's beaver before they swapped positions.

They must have heard me gasping as they both looked up at the same time and caught me watching their antics.

I thought they would go mental – but instead they beckoned me in!

Soon the redhead had my cock in her gob as the blonde straddled my face with her dripping muff.

Trouble is, I haven't seen them since and I'm shit-scared CCTV will have caught our romp and I'll end up getting sacked!

I bonked two horny sisters in pub toilet

Dear Sam,

I'VE had a bit of a problem since I moved to a quiet village six months ago.

I work in the pub and I've fallen for one of the locals. She's 29 and has a great figure.

We have a laugh and a joke every time she comes in and we fondle each other without the others in the pub knowing.

I'd really like to start up a relationship with her, but the problem is that I'm sleeping with her sister!

Sucking

I met her soon after I settled in at my little cottage and we've been an item since.

She's a great girl in her mid-30s and we have a lively sex life.

Recently we had a lock-in at the pub and when I went to the toilet the younger sister followed me.

She got my manhood out, pulled me into the ladies, ripped my jeans down and hitched up her skirt.

Then she pushed me against the wash basin and ordered me in no uncertain terms to f*k her.

After 10 minutes we were still going for it when my girlfriend suddenly came in and caught us on the job.

She rushed over, barged her sister to one side, took her top off and started sucking me off until I came all over her massive tits.

I ended up shafting both of them – twice!

But the next morning, when we'd all sobered up, things were a little different and now they are asking me to choose between them.

I don't want to ditch either, as they both really turn me on.

What should I do?

PY, south Yorkshire

Dear Sam,

MY missus is a right kinky mare and I used to love it when she sucked my toes and licked my balls.

I even went along with it when she asked me to penetrate her with fruit and veg – the odd cucumber and banana.

But a couple of nights ago, she asked me to pleasure her with a massive German sausage we'd bought earlier at the supermarket.

I drew the line at this, but then she said I'd have to make my own tea in the future!

BL, Somerset

Sam says...

IT sounds like you're more keen on the younger sister, so I think your choice is an easy one.

Sam says...

WHY don't you sit down with her and work out what you BOTH want on the sex menu.

Back seat sex pays for driving lessons

Dear Sam,

I'M a 19-year-old female student who is currently learning to drive.

I reckon I'm a decent looker with an attractive body and my instructor was very flirty with me from my very first lesson.

And when I told him I was skint as old arseholes, he said it wasn't a problem and that I could pay him "in other ways".

This means I now suck him off and let him shag me in the back seat of his car down a quiet country lane after each lesson.

He's 44, but he's handsome enough and physically very fit as he goes to the gym all the time.

Ramming

So he has a nice toned body and, best of all, he has a massive cock which is about eight inches.

I enjoy sucking his dick and he always licks me out before doing me from behind, ramming me hard and fast with his rock-hard cock.

But I'm starting to worry that he's not teaching me to drive that well.

I've had around 50 lessons so far and I have failed my test three times.

But he says I'm a good driver and I just need to be patient and carry on with the lessons.

What should I do?

PK, Essex

Sam says...

SCREW the examiner next time! Or find another instructor who won't take the piss.

Dear Sam,

I'M a 24-year-old blonde babe who loves to get attention by wearing high heels and tight skirts.

I'm due to get married in July to a really nice fella who treats me like a princess.

But the problem is I turn into a real slut when I'm pissed.

At last year's office Christmas party I got tipsy and had a lick of the boss's meat stick.

The other day I went to the pub with a few of my mates to talk about the wedding and it wasn't long before a fit, hunky fella caught my eye.

I followed him into the men's toilets and told him that I wanted his knob in my gob.

I quickly got my lips around his big shaft and played with his bellend as he massaged my clitoris.

But after he shot his load down my throat, he suggested he text a couple of his mates who were back out in the pub – if I fancied gobbling them as well.

Well, I told him I was well up for it and he got his pals in for a spunk fest.

Now I feel guilty my fiancé will find out and call off the wedding.

Help!

ALWAYS HOME OF TOPLESS BABES

KINKY Amber Mae has admitted that she prefers using sex toys to the real thing!

The babe told us bonking doesn't ever come close to the pleasure she gets from satisfying herself with X-rated adult gadgets.

Because she never fails to reach orgasm with a plastic device up her!

Amber, who boasts a pair of perfect 34Cs, also said she can't go a day without treating herself to some steamy self-loving.

The Manchester beauty confessed: "Unlike normal sex, I always climax when I use a vibrator.

"As soon as I get through the front door I'm upstairs, my knickers are off and the dildo comes out.

"I can spend hours just playing with my toys.

"It's sheer bliss!"

#HOT'N'HORNY

DISHY Dani Thompson has revealed she has a fetish for outdoor sex.

The busty blonde model admitted enjoying a steamy shag on the beach in the warmer summer months, with a bloke she met on holiday.

Boasting a fantastic 34GG top rack, the Norwich beauty flew off to Spain for a break and spilled the beans on all the naughty antics she got up to.

She said: "I met this fella one night in a bar and before long we were all over each other.

"We pretty quickly decided we wanted to be somewhere more private.

"The pair of us were so horny we couldn't make it back to the hotel, so we got down to it on the beach.

"It was so exciting knowing someone could see us and catch us in the act.

"I'd definitely do it outside again – it really turned me on!"

ALL THE TOP TIPS FOR TODAY

SOVEREIGN LOOKS LIKE A GOLD BET

Varian star has his rivals all at Sea

SOVEREIGN SEA deserves to get his head in front in the Weekly Free Bets With BetMGM Extra Handicap at Southwell following two close seconds this year.

Roger Varian's gelding was three lengths clear of the third when just collared in the final strides by odds-on favourite Bragbor at Newcastle in January, being shaded by a short head.

He then just missed out by half a length following a fine battle with Muddy Mooy at Wolverhampton, with that pair pulling five lengths clear of Andrew Balding's well-bred Nahy.

Winners

A convincing scorer at Newcastle on his racecourse debut back in November, Sovereign Sea is a likeable four-year-old with plenty of scope for further improvement and an opening handicap mark of 85 feels manageable.

Karl Burke is already in double figures for three-year-old winners this term and his Arkinthestars appeals in the Boost Your Acca At BetMGM EBF Fillies' Novice Stakes.

THE GOD OF ODDS
With his top Midweek wagers

This daughter of Mohaather was sent over to Ireland for a valuable sales race on her first start in September and was not beaten too far when ninth of 22, making eye-catching late headway following a tardy start.

She was then third behind what looked a nice Newcastle winner in Orange Sky over seven furlongs and stepping up to a mile here should suit, as half-brother To Nathaniel won at up to 12 furlongs.

It will be frustrating if Spirit Of Summer cannot finally get off the mark in the Best Odds Guaranteed At BetMGM Maiden Stakes for Balding and Oisín Murphy.

He was placed three times as a juvenile, losing out by just a head to Godolphin newcomer Secret Theory at Newmarket in October.

Running in the Group One Criterion International at Saint-Cloud on his final start at two predictably proved an overly ambitious option, but this is a more sensible starting point for his three-year-old campaign.

Patrick Mullins makes an appearance at Haydock when partnering Catterick scorer Jarrive De Mee in the Molson Coors Novices' Hurdle but Starcrossed Lover represents a useful opponent.

Better

Neil Mulholland's charge beat a subsequent scorer in La Pinsonniere at Windsor before romping home by 17 lengths at Hereford.

The six-year-old was out of his depth when taking on Tripoli Flyer in the Grade Two Dovecote at Kempton but can get back on track if none the worse for that experience.

Duke Of Deception travelled sweetly for a long way before just being run out of it late on when second at Warwick recently and is taken to go one better in the Tim Molony Handicap Chase.

That was on good ground and he also has an October 2023 Wetherby win on a sound surface on his CV, so conditions in Merseyside should be fine for him.

At Huntingdon, Galactic Charm is fancied to return to winning ways in the Weatherbys Bank Novices' Hurdle for Gary and Josh Moore.

Following an easy odds-on success at Fontwell, the four-year-old found the pace too hot when taking on East India Dock at Cheltenham in January but was then a solid second to Narragansett in a competitive Sandown juvenile handicap.

Ben Pauling's Wolf Moon showed a 50-1 second to Palladium here was no fluke by scoring nicely at Southwell but has to give Galactic Charm 10lb in this contest.

SELECTIONS

HAYDOCK: 2.20 Galunggung, 2.50 Pike Road, 3.20 Starcrossed Lover, 3.50 Presenting Day, 4.25 Duke Of Deception, 5.00 Typhoon Flyer, 5.35 Lune De La Mer.

HUNTINGDON: 2.35 Buckna, 3.05 Cuban Court, 3.35 Superstyn, 4.07 Galactic Charm, 4.42 Camino Rocio, 5.12 And She Was.

SOUTHWELL: 4.52 Invincible Crown, 5.25 Caballo De Mar, 6.00 Gozo, 6.30 SOVEREIGN SEA (NAP), 7.00 Arkinthestars, 7.30 Spirit Of Summer, 8.00 Al Arbeed, 8.30 Chief Mankato.

AND TOMORROW'S RACING

THURSDAY
BEST BET:
Kado De Joie

THURSDAY

KADO DE JOIE is taken to return to winning ways in the NFU Mutual Insurance Handicap Hurdle at Ludlow.

Nicky Henderson's charge showed promise last season, scoring at Market Rasen and being placed on two other occasions.

He then showed the benefit of a summer break by kicking off this term with a Fontwell and Lingfield double, forging ahead on the run-in each time.

The five-year-old was only fifth at Wincanton last time but travelled strongly in a more competitive contest before just failing to quicken up on ground that connections felt was too tacky.

Fading

That was in mid-January and the decision to freshen him up and wait for better conditions can prove a shrewd move.

Marche d'Aligre can also get back on track in the Ace ATV Novices' Hurdle for Jamie Snowden and Gavin Sheehan.

A comfortable 13-length scorer on his British debut at Wetherby in November, the French import was then a fine second in Chepstow's Grade Two Finale Juvenile Hurdle before fading late on in a hot Haydock affair.

He can hopefully get back to dominating from the front in this company and see out the race.

Fashion's Model came good in the spring last year and did not wait quite as long to hit the target this term, galloping on strongly from the front to score by five lengths at Warwick a month ago.

The Sheila Lewis-trained mare jumped superbly that day and a similar display in that department would make her hard to beat in the Treforest Tiling 52nd Anniversary Handicap Chase at Chepstow.

Scorsese showed enough last time out to suggest a first win under rules is on the way ahead of Sedgefield's Paxtons No1 CaseIH Dealer In UK&Ireland Novices' Handicap Hurdle.

Things have not quite gone as planned for the former Irish point-to-point winner but he ran well for a long way before just faltering late on at Exeter recently and dropping back in distance here could do the trick.

Archie Watson and Hollie Doyle have been teaming up to great effect of late and Commanding Prince can give them another winner in the Win £1M With BetMGM's Golden Goals Novice Stakes at Newcastle.

A half-brother to Derby hero Masar, this son of Too Darn Hot clearly had some issues before making his racecourse debut as a four-year-old last month.

However, after going down by just a short head at Southwell that day, he showed ability and determination to go one better at Gosforth Park, seeing off previous scorer Bragbor in fine style.

Buzz Box is flying up the ratings but both of his victories have been quite commanding, coming through to score with ease, and a course and distance hat-trick could be on in the BetUK: It's Where The UK Bets Handicap.

He looks hard to beat again some fairly modest rivals.

SELECTIONS

CHEPSTOW: 2.20 My Friend Sean, 2.55 Jessmae, 3.30 Jaminaka, 4.05 Fashion's Model, 4.40 Copper Jack, 5.15 Melton Mossy, 5.45 Calvino.

CORK: 1.52 Carried With Love, 2.27 Phoenix Cowboy, 3.02 St Cuthbert's Cave, 3.37 Cobra Queen, 4.12 Nelson County, 4.47 Not May, 5.22 Early Bird.

LUDLOW: 2.45 Ascending Lark, 3.20 Marche d'Aligre, 3.55 Ostrava Du Berlais, 4.30 KADO DE JOIE (NAP), 5.05 Demoiselle Kap, 5.37 Frere d'Armes.

NEWCASTLE: 5.00 Keep Me Stable, 5.30 Asgard's Captain, 6.00 Platinum Crystal, 6.30 Commanding Prince, 7.00 Buzz Box, 7.30 Manton Road, 8.00 Blackcurrent, 8.30 Magic Fluke.

SEDFIELD: 2.00 Paddys Policy, 2.35 Scorsese, 3.10 Ballydisco, 3.45 Rumble B, 4.20 Bebside Banter, 4.53 Klitschko.

GOLDEN WONDER:
Inothewayurthinkin

Gold Cup hero pulled out of the National

GRAND NATIONAL COUNTDOWN

CHELTENHAM Gold Cup hero Inothewayurthinkin will not bid for an historic double in the Randox Grand National at Aintree next month, his trainer Gavin Cromwell has announced.

The JP McManus-owned seven-year-old repaid the faith of his connections after being supplemented for the blue riband with a fantastic victory under Mark Walsh at Prestbury Park on Friday, powering clear of dual Gold Cup hero Galopin Des Champs on the run-in.

Inothewayurthinkin was already Grand National favourite and in the immediate aftermath of his Gold Cup success was cut to a best-priced 3-1 to become only the second horse to win National Hunt racing's two most prestigious prizes after Golden Miller, who completed the double in 1934.

However, after taking a few days to mull over the decision, Cromwell confirmed his charge will not line up in the world's most famous steeplechase on April 5.

He said: "He's only a seven-year-old and we've worked hard on his jumping this season and his jumping has improved an awful lot."

"We think it's the right thing to do. It's all about doing the right thing for the horse."

With Aintree now off the table, Inothewayurthinkin could round off his season in the Punchestown Gold Cup, but that is also far from certain.

"Punchestown is an option, but it's certainly not for definite," Cromwell added. "He's come out of the race well."

Patrick Neville is targeting the Aintree Bowl with The Real Whacker after scratching his stable star from the National.

Despite being unsighted and consequently making a significant error at the first fence, the nine-year-old was not disgraced in finishing fifth in the Cheltenham Gold Cup last week and is now being readied for an appearance on Merseyside.

BIG CALL: Cromwell

A tilt at the world's most famous steeplechase had been under consideration, but Neville has decided to put that plan on the back burner until next season.

The trainer said: "We were happy and we were disappointed because he never ran his true race because he never saw the first fence."

"He never got into his rhythm jumping after that, he was just careful and wasn't letting fly. Looking back at it, Brian (Hughes) did well to stay on him as the horse in front of him (Banbridge) just crossed him at the last second and he said he never saw the fence. He was lucky he didn't come down."

"He's back in one piece and out in the field with the sun on his back. He's in good form, so we'll freshen him up and go to Aintree with him."

He added: "I scratched him from the National and put him in the Bowl, so that's where he'll go. We'll test whether he likes the track and we can aim him at the National next year."

"It was a great experience and everyone that was involved enjoyed it."

"It was great that he got around and we'll rock on to the next day, that's all you can do."

RUGBY UNION: SIX NATIONS FALLOUT

BIG TOURNAMENT:
Itoje should lead
the British Lions

FRANCEpipped England to the Six Nations title after a thrilling final day's action saw Les Bleus end a three-year wait for silverware.

Here, Midweek Sport picks a team of the tournament as the countdown to this summer's British and Irish Lions tour of Australia gathers pace.

15 BLAIR KINGHORN (SCO)

Scotland's full-back had a memorable campaign, topping the statistics for most carries, metres carried and metres gained. A threat to every defence he encountered.

14 TOMMY FREEMAN (ENG)

Became the first England player to score a try in every game of a Six Nations campaign. Started the tournament as right-wing, then moved to centre against Wales. A Lions certainty.

13 HUW JONES (SCO)

Another strong Lions candidate, the Scotland centre scored four tries, made 52 carries and carried for more than 450 metres. A clever player who makes things happen.

By BILL HARE

12 YORAM MOEFANA (FRA)

He showed his worth by displaying impressive consistency. Scored two tries in the title-clinching victory over Scotland.

11 LOUIS BIELLE-BIARREY (FRA)

Set a new Six Nations record of eight tries for one tournament and touched down in all five games to match the achievement of Freeman and his fellow France international Philippe Bernat-Salles 24 years ago. Electric pace.

10 FIN SMITH (ENG)

At just 22 and with only 11 caps, Smith has rapidly grown into a fly-half of stature, pulling the strings for England with an impressive confidence and composure.

9 ANTOINE DUPONT (FRA)

Suffered a season-ending knee injury during France's pivotal victory over Ireland in round four, but had

TOP FULL-BACK:
Blair Kinghorn has had a good campaign already done enough to prove himself a class apart.

1 ELLIS GENGE (ENG)

England's loosehead and vice-captain potentially moved ahead of Ireland prop Andrew Porter in the Lions Test pecking order. Scrummaged strongly and impressed in all departments.

2 DAN SHEEHAN (IRE)

Captained his country against Wales and scored five tries in the tournament, including a hat-trick against Italy. Appears nailed on for the Lions Test team.

3 WILL STUART (ENG)

Marked his 50th cap with a try in the rout of Wales, and he has developed into one of England's most consistent players. A quality scrummager who also impresses in the loose and has improved.

4 MARO ITOJE (ENG)

Sets the highest of standards for himself, and again he did not fall short. Led by example and was the talisman for an England team edged out for the title by France. Must be favourite for the Lions captaincy.

5 THIBAUD FLAMENT (FRA)

Missed the first two Six Nations games because of injury, but Flament was at the heart of France's forward effort. The complete package and among a star-studded team's best players.

6 TOM CURRY (ENG)

A world-class Six Nations campaign for the England flanker, whose shuddering physicality came to the fore. A huge presence at the breakdown – he made five steals in that area – whose form never dipped.

7 JAC MORGAN (WALES)

Ben Earl, Rory Darge and Ben Curry were among the opensides who excelled, but Wales captain Morgan's efforts in the face of adversity bordered on heroic. Was the tournament's top tackler with 88.

8 GREGORY ALLDRITT (FRA)

Took over as France captain after Dupont was injured, and led his team to title glory. Made 59 carries across the championship and was at the heart of everything good about Les Bleus.

MISSION: Josh Hull

Hull: I'll be back stronger

CRICKET

JOSH Hull is aiming to show England he is fitter, faster and more formidable than the bowler who was catapulted into a "surreal" Test debut last summer.

The 20-year-old seamer was summoned out of left field to take on Sri Lanka at the Oval in September, with England finding a 6ft 7in left-armer irresistible in what was effectively a dead rubber.

It was a typically bold gambit from the 'Bazball' brains trust, with Hull's slender CV showing just 16 first-class wickets in 10 matches.

The results were mixed – three first-innings wickets weighing against a few rogue deliveries and a badly fumbled catch – but England were excited enough to pencil him in for further assignments.

In the end a quad injury ruled him out of a white-ball series against Australia and the Test tour of Pakistan, but he has spent his winter working with the national side's strength and conditioning specialists and travelling with Andrew Flintoff's Lions.

The goal, clearly, is to polish Leicestershire's rough diamond and he is already feeling the benefits as he targets a big start to the season.

"I'm champing at the bit to get going again. My last game was the Test match six months ago, so it's been a while," he said. "It's been a good winter, I've been hammering my fitness stuff. It's really fuelled me. I definitely feel stronger and fitter as well. There's still a lot more to come too, which is exciting."

"In the Test my average pace was about 84mph and my quickest ball was 87-88mph. The aim is to shift up my average speed to where that quicker ball is. I want to be bowling high 80s consistently."

"Playing for England you do have a mindset shift. I feel in a better place than last year and looking forward to the Championship, it's a confidence boost to go out, give it a crack and try to knock some people over. I'm excited for that."

Hull has not had to look far for inspiration, waking up each morning and casting eyes on the Test cap presented to him by Flintoff.

"It's at home, in my bedroom. It's strange looking at it thinking, 'I've got one already,'" he said.

£2bn FOR*WOMEN'S TOP SPORT

GLOBAL revenues for women's elite sport could be close to £2billion in 2025 according to predictions from Deloitte.

The finance company estimates the combination of matchday, commercial and broadcast revenue will hit 2.35bn US dollars worldwide across top-level women's sport, up from 1.88bn dollars in 2024.

That would represent a 240 per cent rise in four years after Deloitte valued the 2022 market at 692m.

The 2024 figure greatly exceeded November 2023's projection of 1.28bn dollars and Jennifer Haskel of the Deloitte Sports Business Group said: "The growth of women's sport has continued to exceed expectations as various competitions, leagues, clubs and athletes generate significant returns despite limited resources."

"Crucially, the industry is moving beyond short-sighted metrics to focus on evolving structures and legacy programmes. Industry leaders must strike the right balance between maintaining this growth, establishing strong foundations and maximising opportunities for long-term success."

England will host this summer's Women's Rugby World Cup, with tickets selling well.

Bristol Bears signed US star – and social media sensation – Ilona Maher to a short-term deal ahead of the tournament, with World Rugby chief Alan Gilpin hailing the 28-year-old as "a great example for the men's game" while the tournament's managing director Sarah Massey positioned the event as the centre of "a summer of women's sport".

The 2027 FIFA Women's World Cup in Brazil is likely to be another huge draw and Haskel said: "Major events are increasing visibility and participation but deliberate action needs to be taken after these big moments to drive domestic success for leagues and clubs."

COMEBACK? Pochettino

drops big hint over Spurs job

By PAUL THOMAS

MAURICIO Pochettino has spoken of the "very good relationship" he maintains with Tottenham chairman Daniel Levy as he reiterated his desire to manage the north London club again one day.

The 53-year-old Argentinian, now head coach of the United States men's team, was at the Spurs helm for five and a half years before being sacked in November 2019.

He steered the club to four successive top-four finishes in the Premier League and had title challenges in the 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons, as well as guiding Spurs to the 2019 Champions League final, and would love to have a crack at the role in the future.

"When I left the club I remember one interview I said I would like one day to come back to Tottenham and that is of course... I am now in the USA I am not going to say no, I'm not going to talk about that," the former Paris St Germain and Chelsea boss said.

"What I said still after six or five years, I still feel in my heart that, yes, I would like one day to come back."

Tottenham, now in their second season under Ange Postecoglou, have endured a difficult campaign, exiting both domestic cup competitions in early February and languishing 14th in the league table having collected just 34 points from 29 games.

Their last remaining hope of securing silverware this term comes up in the Europa League, in which they face Eintracht Frankfurt in the quarter-finals next month.

Speaking about Levy, who was the subject of a protest in February as fans vented their frustration, Pochettino said: "Talking about two different sides, professional and personal."

"I've seen always the appreciation in between both, it always was there and is going to be there, the thing to take professional decisions."

"One thing was professional, another personal and now, like the day after we left Tottenham, we keep always a very good relationship."

DISGRACE!*United fans fume after prices go up AGAIN

MANCHESTER United fan group The 1958 has branded large ticket price increases for some senior supporters "a total disgrace".

United revealed on Monday that season ticket prices will rise by five per cent for the third successive year amid ongoing efforts to balance the books.

While the cost for under-16s will be frozen, the applicable 'senior' discount will now track the state pension age of 66 and will be an across-the-board 25 per cent, meaning a big hike for some fans who had been receiving their tickets at half price.

Charges

Manchester United Supporters Trust (MUST) criticised the changes on Monday and The 1958 has now followed suit, saying in a statement: "The fact the ticket prices were not frozen and the club did not follow the precedent set by other Premier League clubs is really disappointing. Especially after serving up one of the worst teams in decades."

By JOHN ANTHONY

The group highlighted the changes for older fans, a 15 per cent increase in car park charges and the introduction of different pricing structures depending on the profile of matches, calling them "stealth rises".

"This is the first phase of reducing the amount of season ticket holders," continued the statement.

"We have always campaigned (that) the club are trying to marginalise match-going fans. Cutting the 50 per cent OAP concession to 25 per cent for those who had it is a total disgrace. This also paves the way for there never being any new season tickets issued now. Why would they do this if they are increasing non-season ticket prices by more? It is also a stay of execution to put them up to whatever they want to if we ever move to a new stadium.

"We want a custodian of the club that puts fans first, cares about this once great institution. Instead, we have a club that is crumbling beneath our feet and we are expected to foot the bill for 20 years of Glazer decay and damage."

MUST estimates 7,000 fans are affected by the policy change and is calling on United to reconsider.

"We are seeking urgent discussions with the club to discuss the implementation of this big change and urge them to phase the reduction in the OAP discount in over more than one season to mitigate the impact on some of our most loyal supporters," a spokesman said.

Rise

There have been a number of protests by United fans about increased costs to fans and the running of the club.

In announcing the ticket price news, chief executive Omar Berrada accepted the move would be unpopular, but said: "The club has decided it would not be right to keep prices unchanged while costs rise and the club continues to face financial issues."

FIRST XI TEAMS IN EUROPE!

Toon Carabao Cup victory means record number of clubs can qualify this season

NEWCASTLE'S Carabao Cup win could mean up to 11 Premier League teams qualify for European competition next season.

England typically receives four Champions League places, two for the Europa League and one in the Conference League play-off stage – a total of seven.

Two leagues each season receive an extra Champions League place based on average UEFA coefficients. England currently leads the standings comfortably, with more clubs remaining in this season's European competitions than leading rivals Spain, Germany and Italy, meaning the top five in the Premier League would all qualify.

There are additional places for the winners of the Champions League and Europa League, if not already qualified. Arsenal and Aston Villa are in the Champions League quarter-finals, with Manchester United and Tottenham at the same stage of the Europa League.

By JOHN ANTHONY

The next team down in the league table qualify for the Europa League, along with the FA Cup winners.

Newcastle secured the Conference League spot with their Carabao Cup win, but could upgrade to the Champions League or Europa League through their league position – they are currently sixth with a game in hand on the teams above them.

That would see the Carabao Cup winners' place transfer to the leading team in the league not already qualified for Europe. The same is true for the second Europa League place should the FA Cup winners qualify via the league.

The Conference League winners also qualify for next season's Europa League, with Chelsea still in contention.

For 11 teams to qualify for Europe, the following must happen:

■ England earns a fifth Champions League place.

■ Villa win the Champions League and finish outside the top five – or Arsenal, though they are second and highly unlikely to fall out of the top five.

■ Manchester United or Spurs win the Europa League, and Chelsea win the Conference League while slipping out of the qualifying positions in the league.

■ Newcastle qualify for at least the Europa League through their league position to vacate their Conference League spot.

That could potentially leave the following qualifiers:

■Champions League (seven): Liverpool, Arsenal, Nottingham Forest, Manchester City and Newcastle through league position; Aston Villa as Champions League winners; Manchester United or Tottenham as Europa League winners.

■ Europa League (three): Brighton through league position; Fulham as FA Cup winners; Chelsea as Conference League winners.

Bournemouth, inheriting the Carabao Cup winners' spot from Newcastle as the highest non-qualified team.

Meanwhile, Dan Burn revealed he has yet to celebrate Newcastle's historic Carabao Cup triumph due to his first call-up for England.

The towering 32-year-old

DAY ON THE CONTINENT

FIRST TROPHY IN 70 YEARS: Newcastle lift the Carabao Cup celebrated his maiden call into an England squad last Thursday by powering home Newcastle's opening goal in Sunday's Wembley win against Liverpool.

The Blyth-born defender is now hoping to make his first appearance at any level for his country in head coach Thomas Tuchel's first game in charge in Friday's World Cup qualifier against Albania.

Opportunity

Burn said: "It was strange. As soon as I left the stadium my focus completely switched to this."

"I had my family here and the kids and we ended up getting on the bus at 12 o'clock back to the hotel."

"It was getting a bit rowdy and I was just ready to go to sleep! There will be time to celebrate. I know the club's put stuff out about there being a parade (a week) on Saturday, so I think that's when I'll celebrate. "But I've waited a long time for this opportunity and didn't want to spoil it."

Burn, whose career started at Darlington and has included spells at Yeovil and Wigan, admitted he felt an England call-up had passed him by.

"I think I have been overlooked, but I understood it," he said. "What Gareth (Southgate) did to bring England from where it was to competing in finals showed that his method was very good."

"When the new manager came in there was a clean slate, but once you've been passed over during so many international breaks, you sort of accept the time has passed, but luckily the new manager has taken a chance on me."

"It's made me resilient. I don't think I've had a straight line in my career. I started really late and it's been very up and down."

"I made my Premier League debut at 21 and three years later I was released by Fulham."

"I don't really care about people's opinions. I've learned I know what I'm good at. I know opinions that matter to me."

"I feel I've been doubted a lot over my career. I doubt many people who watched me play at Darlington would say that I'd be sat here doing a press conference for England."

SHOW ME YOU ARE CHAMPS!

BRENDAN Rodgers demanded a drastic improvement as he challenged Celtic to bounce back from their Old Firm humbling.

The Hoops are reeling from a first home defeat against city rivals Rangers since 2020 after going down 3-2 at Celtic Park on Sunday.

Despite the derby setback, Celtic are 13 points clear at the top of the Premiership and remain on course to defend their title, while they have a Scottish Cup semi-final against St Johnstone next month.

Rodgers has ordered his team to sharpen up and make sure they close out the campaign with a flourish as they bid to complete a domestic treble.

"Firstly, the message to the supporters is, we apologise" the manager said.

"In every facet of the game we have to be much better and if you're going to be a champion this year, you've got to go and show that you're a champion."

Chelsea lead Liverpool No2 chase

CHELSEA want to make Liverpool's Caoimhin Kelleher their new No1.

The Blues have been struggling along with Robert Sanchez and Filip Jorgensen both struggling between the sticks.

They see Kelleher as the ideal long-term solution to their keeper problem.

The Ireland gloveman wants to leave Anfield where he is behind Allison and new goalie Georgi Mamardashvili due to arrive from Valencia at the end of the season.

He is rated as the best young keeper on the planet and there's now way Kelleher will settle for being Arne Slot's third-choice.

The 26-year-old has made more than 60 appearances for the Reds but is ready to move.

Chelsea could face stiff competition from Andoni Iraola's Bournemouth.

The Spaniard loses on-loan Kepa Arrizabalaga at the end of the season and is another known admirer of Kelleher.

He has made the keeper his No1 summer target and Kelleher may prefer to be out of the spotlight on the south coast.

Liverpool would be looking for around £30m for the Irishman but his contract is up next year so they may have to settle for a bit less than that.
